YOUR BOULDERS. YOUR JOB.

APPLY NOW!

Boulderwelt is a dynamic, owner-managed company on a growth trajectory. That's why we're looking for a on a part-time basis (24 hours/week) to join our passionate team at our Munich South location. During the onboarding process, You'll get to know and implement the Boulderwelt setting philosophy. Thanks to our continuous growth, we are also able to offer various opportunities for Your personal and professional development.

ROUTESETTER (M/F/D)

You can expect a family-like working environment with very flat hierarchies and a crew that shares Your passion for bouldering. In addition to competitive pay and flexible working hours, we offer strong opportunities for personal growth and regular exchange in a professional setting. And of course, You'll have exclusive access to climb in all Boulderwelt gyms.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Setting high-quality boulders and traverses tailored to different target groups
- Supporting events by creating engaging challenges
- Active community management and representing us on our social media channels
- Assisting with various organizational tasks

REQUIREMENTS

- At least 5 years of climbing or bouldering experience
- Personal climbing level of at least Font 7a across various styles
- Over 3 years of experience in commercial route setting
- Strong eye for visual route design and photography
- Physically fit and resilient
- Independent and solution-oriented work style

Have we sparked Your interest? Then we're looking forward to receiving Your complete and compelling application! Please send it — including Your earliest possible start date — by June 30th, 2025, to Sean Peeters (jobs@boulderwelt-muenchen-sued.de). We can't wait to hear from You!
